- November 2025, Punta Cana, Dominican Republic: Tenth Summit of the Americas.

Working procedure:

The draft Commitment of Punta Cana will be discussed and negotiated at the regular meetings of the SIRG. The working procedure for those meetings is set out below:

- Prior to the First Regular SIRG Meeting of 2025, the Chair, with the support of the Summits Secretariat, will send the concept paper to the delegations for due analysis. This is intended to allow them to share their impressions and comments on the document during their remarks at the First Meeting.
- During the First Regular SIRG Meeting of 2025, the Chair will present the theme for the Tenth Summit and the delegations will be given the opportunity to submit their comments on the concept paper. Should any additional comments arise after the meeting, delegations may send them by email no later than February 28.
- On March 14, 2025, the Chair, with the support of the Summits Secretariat, will distribute the first draft of the Commitment of Punta Cana to the states by email. The delegations are to submit their comments by March 28, 2025.

Comments from the delegations should be sent to the following email addresses: gric@oas.org; mconte@oas.org; Chair's email to be determined.

- On April 18, 2025, the Chair, with the support of the Summits Secretariat, will distribute to the delegations the draft Commitment of Punta Cana with the states' remarks received to date.
- At the Second Regular SIRG Meeting of 2025, the Chair will submit the draft Commitment of Punta Cana with the comments made by the states for the delegations' consideration and due analysis, in order to consider and reach consensus on the final document at the scheduled meetings of the SIRG.
- Similarly, during the open sessions of the SIRG, the Chair will provide the necessary opportunities for civil society, social actors, the private sector, and youth to present their recommendations to the Process.
- This includes the Hemispheric Dialogue with Civil Society and Social Actors on the occasion of the regular SIRG negotiation meeting.

- The Chair, in coordination with the Summits Secretariat, will assume rapporteurship responsibilities during the SIRG meetings, documenting the delegations' contributions and comments.
- Based on those contributions, the Chair will present the delegations with the conclusions of the dialogues held, as well as the proposals for concrete actions received. These will be submitted for analysis and, if the necessary consensus exists, will be presented for final consideration by the Heads of State and Government at the Tenth Summit of the Americas in November 2025.
