

100,000 STRONG IN THE AMERICAS

The 100,000 Strong in the Americas initiative seeks to promote cooperation and prosperity in the Americas through the expansion of international exchange programs for students in Latin America, the Caribbean and the United States. The initiative, aimed at the regions future innovators and leaders, represents a partnership among governments, universities and the private sector.

SIXTH SUMMIT MANDATE:

To foster greater international exchange of students, in order to provide them with the greatest possible learning opportunities. (Poverty, Inequality and Inequity)

ACTIONS:

- Expansion of exchanges and partnerships between universities in the US, Latin America and the Caribbean.
- Promotion of student diversity by providing international study opportunities for students from disadvantaged backgrounds or historically undeserved populations.
- Cooperation with governments and educational institutions on student advising, assistance with placement, and coordination to ensure timely access to educational and visa services.

PARTNERS:

