DEMOCRATIC GOVERNANCE AGAINST CORRUPTION

Wednesday, September 13, 2017

3:00 P.M.

Hall of the Americas - Organization of American States

17th Street & Constitution Ave. NW.

Washington, D.C. 20006

On September 13, 2017, join us at the Hall of the Americas for an expert discussion on democratic governance and corruption to initiate preparations for the VIII Summit of the Americas to be held in Lima, Peru in April 2018.

The Summit of Peru, which has as its central theme "Democratic Governance against Corruption", will bring together the Heads of State and Government of the Americas, representatives of civil society organizations, indigenous peoples, youth, the private sector, labor unions and other social actors.

The session will be moderated by world-renowned experts and will be broadcasted live through the OAS website at (www.oas.org). Likewise, the experts will be answering questions from the audience and to the queries that are made on Twitter @SummitAmericas, using the hashtags #AskSummitAmericas and #MoreDemocracyLessCorruption, and through our Facebook account @SummitAmericas.
