TRANSPORT

Free shuttle services will be available for participants to the VIII Summit of the Americas upon arrival to the Jorge Chávez International Airport in Lima-Peru.

Shuttle buses with the Summit logo will take attendees from the airport terminal to the “official” hotels, and from the hotels to the Lima Convention Center (LCC) located in the district of San Borja.

Vehicle Accreditation

All Embassies and/or Representations private vehicles to be used by the delegations must have a vehicle pass issued by the VIII Summit of the Americas Working Group. Please send the accreditation form duly filled out with detailed information of vehicles and drivers to the following email: transporteviicumbreperu@rree.gob.pe. In order to obtain such vehicle pass.

HEALTH

Seeking to reduce potential health-related risks during the event, the VIII Summit of the Americas will implement a health strategy in order to provide adequate and timely medical care for all participants. The following information may be relevant for participants:

1. MEDICAL RECORD

Participants should inform the chief of the health area of the Summit of the Americas Working Group about chronic diseases or other medical conditions they may have so as to take the necessary health measures. All information provided will be treated confidentially.

2. MEDICAL SERVICES

During the VIII Summit of the Americas, on-site medical care units and ambulances will be available in the official venues of the event:

a. JORGE CHÁVEZ INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (Lima-Peru)

The on-site medical care unit is located on the first floor of the Jorge Chavez International Airport and may provide medical care to participants upon arrival to or departure from Peru. There will also be two ambulances.

b. 27 JANUARY CONVENTION CENTER

The medical care unit is located on the first floor and will count with bilingual (Spanish-English) health professionals. In addition, two ambulances will be available for pre-hospital care, if necessary.

c. INTERNATIONAL MEDIA CENTRE (Ministry of Culture)

The medical care unit is located on the ground floor of the Ministry of Culture. It will count with bilingual health professionals and an ambulance.

d. OFFICIAL HOTELS

Stand-by ambulances for participants will be available in the districts where the official hotels are located. (See list of hotels under VIII Summit /accommodation)

3. SOCIAL AND CULTURAL EVENTS

Basic first aid will be available for participants during the official social and cultural events.

4. HEALTH INSURANCE

All those participating in the VIII Summit of the Americas should have an international health insurance policy prior to their arrival in Peru.

5. GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

- Drink bottled or properly boiled water.
- Eat only fresh fruits and vegetables that have been thoroughly cooked.
- Preferably eat in establishments accredited as healthy by local governments.
- If the trip to Peru is long, we recommend wearing comfortable travel clothes, getting up and stretching arms and legs frequently during the trip.
